

20 Dollars Reward.

The above reward will be paid for lodging in jail, or bringing home negro Sophia, a bright mulatto woman, about eighteen years old, well grown, she has large grey eyes, and her hair rather light. The above woman ran away from Col. Waring of Mount Pleasant, about the 15th June, (of whom I purchased her). She has been heard of in the neighbourhood of Mr. William Tillard's near Pig Point, where it is supposed she has been waiting to get a passage in the packet to Baltimore. She has acquaintances in Baltimore, Washington, Annapolis, and Norfolk. Her clothing not recollected, excepting a green stuff frock.

By His Excellency Charles Ridgely of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it appears from the deposition of Joseph Sprigg, Esq. of Washington county, that about three o'clock in the morning of the fifteenth ultimo, a fire broke out in his stable which entirely consumed it, and that he has strong reasons to believe it had been set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons. And whereas it is of the greatest importance to society that the perpetrator or perpetrators of such a crime should be brought to condign punishment. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of two hundred dollars, to any person who shall discover and make known the author or perpetrators of said offence, provided he she or they or any of them be brought to justice. Given in Council at the City of Annapolis under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, this thirtieth day of January eighteen hundred and seventeen.

C. RIDGELY, of Hampton.

By His Excellency's command, NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the Council.

Ordered that the above be published ten times in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, and Baltimore Telegraph, the Frederick-Town Herald, the Torch Light, Allegany Federalist, and Eastern Monitor.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the Council.

To Travellers.

Persons travelling to Baltimore will find it much the nearest and best road by way of the Middle Ferry. Formerly Holland's ferry, which is now kept in good order, and constant attendance, by Henry Johnson and Wm Arnold; where liquors and horse feed can be had. The road between the ferry and Baltimore has lately been straightened and improved, and is only three miles from the ferry to Mrs. Carroll's Bridge, where it intersects the Washington turnpike road.

Thomas Leitch.

NOTICE.

A malicious lie having been industriously propagated, that I had been as low as Huntingdon, in Calvert county, endeavouring to purchase up corn; that I had stated, that it was for Col. Mercer's family, and that I had actually agreed with one man for ten barrels, but afterwards insisting that it should be delivered at the cove, the bargain was broken off. I do hereby certify, that the above report is in all its parts untrue. I have not been in Calvert since July last, and then only for 36 hours, and that for a very different purpose, nor have I ever offered to purchase corn of any person in Calvert, or any where else, for nine years past.

West River, Jan. 6, 1817.

I should not have noticed the above contemptible and groundless falsehood, had it concerned myself only; but at the desire of Mr. Leitch, whom it may be intended to injure at this time when an alarm exists from a real scarcity, I readily certify, that I never gave him, or any one else, any authority or direction to purchase corn for me, either directly or indirectly, for several years past.

John F. Mercer.

United States of America

District of Maryland, to wit:

WHEREAS informations have been filed in the District Court of the said United States, for Maryland District, by Elias Glenn, Esquire, attorney for the same, against the schooner Arismende, alias Ship Dragon, alias Mendocino, for that certain goods, wares and merchandize, of large value, to wit, of the value of four hundred dollars and upwards, were brought in said vessel from some foreign port or place to the said United States, and were unladen and delivered from said vessel, within the United States, to wit, at the District of Annapolis, without a permit being first had and obtained from the collector of said district for such unloading and delivery, and praying a condemnation of said vessel, for the use of the said United States, and also against one hundred and seventy four bales, packages and trunks, of dry goods, the property of some person or persons to the said attorney unknown, for that the said goods were imported into the said United States, to wit, into the port of Annapolis, in the district aforesaid, from some foreign port or place to the said attorney unknown, in the said schooner or vessel, which vessel is the property of some person or persons to the said attorney unknown; which said goods were seized by John Randall, Esquire, collector of the customs for the district of Annapolis aforesaid, as forfeited, and which said goods, at the time of seizure, were subject to duty, and which said duty had not been paid or secured to be paid.

And also against sundry goods, wares and merchandize, to wit, sixty-six pieces of check, thirty-six pieces of marseilles, seventy-five pieces of cotton cambric, eighty-nine pieces of handkerchiefs, forty-two pieces calico, twenty-five pieces of striped cotton, two pieces cotton shirting, and thirty dozen cotton hose—for that the said goods were imported into the said United States, to wit, the district aforesaid, from some foreign port or place to the said attorney unknown, and were unladen and delivered from some ship or vessel at the district aforesaid, without a permit being first had and obtained therefor from John Randall, Esquire, the collector of the customs of said district, where the said goods were unladen and delivered; and praying a condemnation of the same, as forfeited according to law.

And whereas the honourable James Houston, judge of the said court, hath ordered and directed Tuesday the fourth day of March next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, for holding a court, at the Court House in the City of Baltimore, for said trials, agreeably to the prayer of said attorney.

Notice is hereby given, that a district court will then and there be held for the trial of the premises, and the owner or owners, and all persons who may have or claim any interest therein or thereto, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, to shew cause, if any they have, why a final determination should not pass.

By order of the court,

Philip Moore, Clerk.

HAYLANDS.

This establishment has long been considered one of the most desirable in Maryland for a country gentleman, possessing as it does the requisites necessary to make it so; such as fertility of soil, fine springs, extreme beauty of situation, lofty, airy and dry, &c. a good neighbourhood. The quantity of land between twelve and fifteen hundred acres, well timbered and adjoining those of Col. Mercer. The improvements, a large two story brick house with wings, in good repair, over a house, quarters, stables, tobacco houses, barn sheds and strong enclosures. The soil particularly favourable to the growth of tobacco, corn, clover and first quality white wheat; a large proportion of rich natural meadow and the uplands highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. The waters of Rhode river navigable for bay craft of the largest size, encompass about one fourth part of these lands, which waters abound with crabs, fish, wild fowl and fine oysters, and come nearer than any other on the Chesapeake bay to the city of Washington, having the like and equal advantages, being distant from the city about thirty-two miles and a good road thereto over Mount Pleasant ferry and through Upper Marlborough.—There has been formerly a mill on these lands, the stream attached to which is plentiful nine months in the year.

If desired, all the stock, except the Negroes will be sold with the farm. The stock is valuable, and consists of about eighty head of Cattle, one hundred Sheep, twelve or fifteen horses, hogs, &c. Mr. Gray, manager, will shew the farm to any person desirous of making examination. Apply in Baltimore to

TAVERN.

REZIN D. BALDWIN.

Respectfully informs the public, that he has opened a Tavern and Boarding House, at that well known place occupied for many years by Captain James Thomas. Its vicinity to the Stadt House will at all times render it the most convenient resort to strangers having business to transact in any of the public offices. Those who may be inclined to patronize the establishment are assured that the best accommodations are provided, and the most scrupulous attention shall be paid to the guests. This establishment having been always the resort of gentlemen from the Eastern Shore, it is hoped that they will continue to frequent it, and so far as attention, good fare, and moderate rates, can support the character of the establishment to well known, he wishes himself they shall not be wanting. Boarders taken by the day, week, month or year, and horses taken as very.

N. B. Private parties can be accommodated with a capital of Oysters at the short notice.

A Valuable Tract of Land.

Called "September 14th, 1730, two born, John Hammond son of John Hammond, containing about six hundred and fifty acres, lying in Anne Arundel county, about 12 miles from Baltimore and from the turnpike road to the city of Washington, near to and adjoining the plantations of Judge Ridgely, Mr. Allen and John Dorsey. There are in this land about 150 acres cleared and arable, the soil of which is improvable by plaster, and known to be adapted to the growth of tobacco. 100 acres are very heavily timbered, part of which is valuable yellow pine; and the residue is well wooded. Near this land are now in operation two extensive Merchant mills, and other valuable improvements in contemplation. The tract will be sold together, or in large parcels, as purchasers may prefer at the time of sale. It will be sold on a credit of 12, 18 and 24 months, each payable by secured by bond, or note with approved security and bearing interest from the day of sale. On ratification of the sales by the chancery and record of the purchase money by the Trustee—a conveyance to be made conformably to the decree.

William Gwynn, and Thomas L. Emory, Jr., Trustees.

N. B.—The trustees, if notified a sufficient length of time before the day of sale, by one or more persons paying a part, or parts of the above land of Land, would have a survey made and plats prepared of each part or parts as may be suggested to them, and the tract thus divided into lots.
